How It Works

How it works:

First, upload a building image, draw out the floors, associate your property's availabilities to your drawings and you're done! Now your prospective tenants will be able to browse your website, click on the floors you drew and view its availabilities.

This document is intended to provide you with step-by-step instructions on how to create, manage and delete your Interactive Stacking Plan as well as answer frequently asked questions.